

Parent/Guardian Permission and Responsibility Form

SU # _____

My daughter, _____, a member of Troop # _____, has my permission to participate in the 2010 Girl Scout Cookie Sale Program.

I have read all the cookie program materials and agree to:

- Provide adult supervision and guidance at all times.
- Ensure that she is a currently registered member of Girl Scouts of the United States of America.
- Have my daughter, and anyone associated with her, wait until JANUARY 15, 2010 to take orders.
- Girl Scouts under the age of 9 may NOT sell door to door in Wisconsin.
- Not collect money for product sold until delivery (except Cookie Share packages).
- Sell product for the Council set price. Checks made payable to GSMWLP or Girl Scouts.
- Accept financial responsibility for all products and money collected, sign receipts for product taken and money turned in to the Troop.
- Turn in money to the troop on or before the appointed date (as set by the Troop).
- Adhere to the new policies regarding online marketing of the Cookie Program. Complete online safety agreement at www.gslakesandpines.org. Please initial _____.
- Adhere to GSUSA policy prohibiting internet sites (such as eBay) taking orders and collecting payment for Girl Scout Cookies.

Furthermore, I understand that because unsold packages cannot be returned, they are the responsibility of the person signing the receipt. I agree to be responsible for the Girl Scout Cookies and the money collected. I understand that failure to turn in collected money will result in a collection process, to the fullest extent of the law.

Additional information for Girl Scouts and her family... (Recognition Plan is on the Order Card Wrap)

Early Recognition: Each girl who sells 137+ packages by January 31, 2010 will receive the Organic Cotton Messenger Bag. (If girl reaches 137+ packages after that date, girl earns a choice of peace necklace or $5.00 Cookie Dough instead).

Troop Bonus is an additional $.05 per package sold, earned by all troops who reach an average of 150 packages per girl registered by May 1, 2010. A check is mailed to the troop leader in late May/early June once the troop balance is paid in full.

Cash Plan available for Troops in Grades 6 - 12 your troop can choose to receive additional troop profit instead of the individual girl recognitions (listed in the order card over wrap). If ALL MEMBERS in your troop (Grades 6-12) agree, you can earn an additional $.05 per package sold for a total $.55 per package. Troops choosing the Cash Plan are eligible for the Troop Bonus (if the 150 package average per girl registered is met). Girls are eligible for patches and Cookie Dough.

- Accept the troop decision (grades 6 -12) to earn additional troop profit OR individual girl recognitions please initial _____.

T-Shirt Size _____

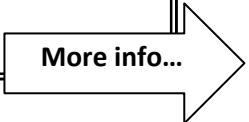

Please indicate the size you want ordered in the event your Girl Scout sells 107+ packages to earn the T-shirt. Consider ordering a size larger than she currently wears.

The 300+ Super Seller Events are open to EVERY girl who sells 300+ packages of cookies during the 2010 Girl Scout Cookie Program. Two or more sisters in the same household may attend Super Seller Events provided each sister sells a minimum of 200 packages! NEW Super Sellers options for 2010 include: attending one Super Seller council program (look for the patch in the Program Guide), or a $15 discount toward camp or head to Camp Cookie, an overnight camp event.

NEW for 2010 we are creating a 500+ Super Seller Club for girls selling 500+ packages. To celebrate the determination, creativity and energy it takes to reach this level girls will choose from the following program options: attending 2 Super Seller council programs, or receive a $30 discount toward camp or attend one program and receive a $15 discount toward camp.

Top Seller in each program level Daisy, Brownie, Junior, Cadette and Senior/Ambassador (5 girls) will each receive her choice of the Fleece Blanket and $20 in additional Cookie Dough. The overall Council Top Seller will receive her choice of the above PLUS an additional $35 Cookie Dough.

Cookie Dough is a unique and exciting incentive for all girls who sell Girl Scout Cookies. Any girl who sells 25 or more packages during the Girl Scout Cookie Sale earns Cookie Dough. REMEMBER – Every package your daughter sells from January 15 through March 14 helps her earn Cookie Dough!

Cookie Dough can be used for resident camp, day camp, Destinations, council sponsored programs and trips, Lakes and Pines shop purchases and camp trading post. A maximum of $6.00 may be applied towards the girl’s membership fee. *See coupon for full details!

Girls in Grades 6-12 can save their Cookie Dough for up to 3 years for trips to the WAGGGS World Centers, Destinations or council sponsored trips. Be sure to let Product Sales staff know about your plans before you start saving.
